Peter Yates performs on guitar and arpeggione (bowed guitar) with Nadia Shpachenko on harpsichord

8 pm, Friday, January 30, 2009

Cal Poly Pomona Music Recital Hall

$7 admission

Featured will be German, Dutch and Irish (yes, Irish) works from the Baroque era, Mexican works from the 20th century, and the mysterious 16th-century Spanish Tentos of Luys Milan. Joining him at the harpsichord for sonatas by Ponce and Bach will be faculty colleague and brilliant pianist Nadia Shpachenko. Finally, an original 19-minute comic-book oratorio will be shown, featuring 250 collage images based on history, biology and myth, all set to music for voices and guitars.
